

Kristie Williams, Ph.D, LPC

Dr. Kristie Williams is an Educator, Life Coach and Licensed Professional Counselor. Over the years, Dr. Williams has served as a counselor, advocate, mentor, and educator in higher education and with non-profit community organizations. She specializes in working with clients in the areas of career exploration, grief counseling, anxiety, depression, post traumatic stress disorder and assisting both survivors and adults who were child witnesses to domestic violence.

Dr. Williams has served as a member and facilitator of multiple programs and committees, including but not limited to the One Love Foundation, an organization that educates students on dating and domestic violence.

CANDID CONVERSATIONS:

Book Discussions on Race, Equity, Inclusion & Social Justice

Sponsored by Northwest Family Life
Learning and Counseling Center

Wednesdays starting
Nov 11th thru Dec 16th
5-6:30pm PST

In continuing Candid Conversations on Race, Equity, Inclusion and Social Justice, Northwest Family Life is offering another book discussion. This 6-week discussion group will take place from Nov 11th thru Dec 16th using the book My Grandmother's Hands by Resmaa Menakem.

If you are interested in taking part in this next discussion group, please respond to reserve your space at kwilliams@nwfamilylife.org.

Please note that we will be using ZOOM for weekly discussions which will be limited to fifteen participants in an effort to create and accommodate an engaged space.

Time Zones

5:00 - 6:30 pm Pacific Standard Time (PST),
7:00 - 8:30 pm Central Standard Time (CST),
8:00 - 9:30 pm Eastern Standard Time (EST)